

Permission for Use of Images/Videos/Photography

To raise awareness of the Charity, Molly Ollys shares stories on social media, our website and promotional material, and in the press about fundraising activities and the services we provide. This may involve the use of photographs, video footage and brief details. We will not use full names or contact details under any circumstances.

If you are happy for Molly Ollys to share your story, please provide your specific consent below. Please note that you can withdraw your consent to publicity at a later date if you choose to do so by contacting us. Please note that if the images include children under 18, we need parent/guardian permission.
